Help for Heroes is a charity that provides direct, practical support to those who have been wounded in Britain's current conflicts.

The charity was founded by Bryn and Emma Parry after a profoundly moving visit to Selly Oak Hospital in the summer of 2007. Bryn and Emma met some extraordinarily brave young men and women who had been badly wounded and they just wanted to do something to help.

The message is simple, H4H does not seek to criticise or be political, we simply want to help and do so by asking everyone to do their bit to raise money. Once that money is raised we go to the experts in the Royal Navy, Army and Royal Air Force for guidance on how best to spend it.

We are passionate about what we are doing. It is needed, it is appreciated and we are making a real difference to the lives of some extraordinary young men and women.

Please help us in helping our Heroes.
